Caroline Lenton-Ward - Adjudicator

Caroline was educated at the Royal Academy of Music where she was awarded the Charles Norman Prize. On leaving the RAM, she was granted awards from the Countess of Munster Musical Trust. Caroline has appeared with the Royal Opera, Opera North, Kent Opera and the D'Oyly Carte, and with many leading ensembles including the BBC Singers, Sinfonietta Voices and London Voices. She is on the soundtrack for numerous films including, Lord of the Rings, Star Wars and Kung Fu Panda!

Solo appearances have included performances at the Royal Albert Hall; the Royal Festival Hall with the London Philharmonic; Mozart's C Minor Mass at the Barbican; Messiah with Sir David Willcocks; the Bridgewater

Hall and the Philharmonic Hall with the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra; the role of the Virgin in Honegger's opera Joan of Arc, conducted by Libor Pesek; Verdi's Requiem in Ely Cathedral; Vaughan Williams A Sea Symphony; Rossini's Petite Messe Solenne for the BBC; and Britten's War Requiem. In 2016 she sang at the Service of Blessing for the Installation of the Lord Mayor of London.

Caroline runs a private teaching practice; was a vocal tutor at Goldsmiths University of London, head of singing at Forest School, Greycoat Hospital School and Sydenham High School; trains the choristers at St. Stephen's Church; she set up and ran the Westminster Choral Project including the Westminster Junior Singers and Youth Choir and has worked for the BBC Singers outreach team and was on the government advisory panel Go Sing.

Andrew Baars – Accompanist.

Andrew is a life-long musician. He grew up in Torquay, singing in a large church choir, playing the organ and accompanying for the local Gilbert and Sullivan Society, not to mention the pantomimes and shows that filled school holidays! The idea of returning to full time graduate studies in his early thirties kick started a music and teaching career. He combined his Music degree studies at Exeter University with the role of Director of Music at Tiverton Parish Church. Andrew has held Director of Music positions at two London schools and organist posts at Worth Abbey, All Saints Church, Putney and at St James Garlickhythe. He is currently Director of Music at St Anne's Lutheran Church at St. Mary-at-Hill in the City.

St Stephens' Young Musician would like to thank the following people without whom this event would not have been possible: The Vicar, Churchwardens and PCC for the use of the church; Benefactors who have donated prize money; The Social Committee for providing refreshments; Cath Crocker for front of house; Sarah Bucknall for administrative help; Andrew Baars – Accompanist; Caroline Lenton-Ward – Adjudicator and organiser.
